1. ACCREDITATION

University of Illinois at Chicago is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and other agencies. For accreditation information, refer to the UIC catalog.

2. ACADEMIC CALENDAR/UNIT OF CREDIT

The academic year consists of the fall and spring semesters and a twelve-week Summer Session with varying length parts of term. Each fall and spring semester includes fifteen weeks of instruction and one week of final examinations. The unit of credit is the semester hour. For academic calendar systems prior to Fall 1991, see:

https://registrar.uic.edu/student_records/grading_system

3. RELEASE OF INFORMATION

This transcript is issued on the condition that it will not be released to another party without written consent of the student, FERPA of 1974, as amended.

4. AUTHENTICITY OF TRANSCRIPT

Official transcripts are printed on red security paper with red border and do not require a raised seal. Credentials Solutions of Deerfield, IL, coordinates ordering and some delivery of UIC transcripts. For more information, contact the UIC Office of the Registrar. Alteration or forgery may be a criminal offense.

5. GRADING SYSTEM

Effective Fall 2004, UIC changed from a 5.0 GPA to a 4.0 GPA scale. In the 4.0 scale, all courses taken, quarter hour or semester hour are converted as follows:

	Grade	Grade Point Value
A	Excellent	4 points per hour
B	Good	3 points per hour
C	Average	2 points per hour
D	Poor but Passing	1 point per hour
F	Failure	0 points per hour
FR	Failure by Rule	0 points per hour

Other Grade Symbols (Not included in GPA computation)

W – Withdrew. Officially withdrew from course without penalty.

DFR—Deferred (prior to Fall 2004 was DF). Used for thesis courses, continuing seminar, sequential courses, certain study-abroad courses, and certain courses that require extensive independent work beyond the term. At the end of the continuing course sequence, the DFR must be converted to a letter grade, to an I, or to an S or U.

S – Satisfactory; U – Unsatisfactory. Used in graduate thesis research courses and graduate courses given for zero credit, and in specifically approved courses.

S* – Satisfactory. Credit does not apply toward earned credit hours or graduation.

CR – Credit (prior to Fall 2004 was P). For courses taken under credit/no credit option. CR is recorded if the letter grade of A, B, C or D is assigned. A CR will not be recorded for graduate students assigned a letter grade of D.

NC – No Credit (prior to Fall 2004 F). Used in courses taken credit/no credit. NC recorded if grade of F assigned. NC recorded for graduate students assigned a D or F.

NR – Not Reported (prior to Fall 2004 was M). NR is assigned when no grade is submitted by the instructor.

I – Incomplete (prior to Fall 2004 IN). Course work incomplete when a student fails to submit all required assignments or is absent from final examination. Incomplete course work will normally result in a failing grade if it is not completed within the designated time limit.

PS – Pass (Prior to Fall 2004 was P). Awarded for test-based credit applied toward passed and earned hours.

For the grading systems of students enrolled at UIC prior to 1991, UIC School of Law grading system, and the UIC College of Medicine grading system, please see https://registrar.uic.edu/student_records/grading_system

6. UIC CUMULATIVE GRADE INFORMATION

UIC cumulative grade information includes total hours earned and grade point average based upon the level of the student: undergraduate, graduate, nondegree, and professional. Beginning Fall 1991, all UIC cumulative grade information is recorded in semester hours. The cumulative GPA includes all courses taken at UIC in which a grade of A, B, C, D, E or F was reported. NOTE: The Graduate College uses a Degree Grade Point Average, which does not appear on the transcript, to determine academic standing and graduation. The Graduate College Degree GPA is an average of grades earned in all 400- and 500-level courses taken while in a specified graduate degree program, as well as any UIC (only) work transferred into that program from the nondegree student level or another Graduate level program.

7. SPECIAL NOTATIONS ON TRANSCRIPT

AH, BH, and SH indicates honors grading for grades assigned of A, B, or S.

For additional notations, see:

https://registrar.uic.edu/student_records/grading_system
