

Rebecca Tevebaugh

(Hue)

Olympia, WA
(714) 616-1088
hue.is.this@gmail.com

Skills

Experience

Objective

Seeking Master's in Environmental Studies to improve surrounding environment and the interactions groups/individuals have with it.

-
- Ability to perform graduate level quantitative analysis and critical inquiry, with hands on experience in the field
 - Sharp communication skills, experience working with multiple media platforms and in-person with diverse and international groups/individuals
 - Thesis writing, traditional writing styles, experimental writing
-

Puget Sound Estuarium / Volunteer

January 2023- Ongoing, Olympia, WA

Various volunteer work including animal husbandry, environmental education, fundraising, event planning, outreach, equity building.

South Sound Prairies-Center For Natural Land Management/Volunteer

January 2023 - Ongoing, Olympia, WA

Main focus on land restoration and propagation, this includes tasks such as burning and planting.

Nisqually Land Trust / Volunteer

January 2023 - Ongoing, Various locations around Washington

Restoration work including: mainly planting native species, such as shrubs and trees.

Food Not Bombs / Volunteer

Fall 2021- Ongoing, Olympia, WA, New York City, NY

Reducing food waste, cooking/distributing meals to the public.
Fundraising, ex: Benefit for Jackson, Mississippi Water Crisis 2022

WWOOF/Workaway / Volunteer

Fall/Winter 2017-2018, Spring/Summer 2022

Volunteered with WWOOF, World Wide Opportunities on Organic Farms, with an emphasis on sustainability and community building. Work with Workaway centered on nonprofit housing/food projects, permaculture, sustainability incorporating reducing, reusing, and recycling various materials.

Education

The Evergreen State College / BA

Fall 2015-Spring 2016, Spring 2019 - Spring 2022 Olympia, WA

Emphasis in Political Ecology and Humanities. Graduated with Indigenous Honors. Achieved 95% full credit for total credits attempted, equal to 4.0 GPA. Relevant coursework: Times Past: Earth Processes and Human History, Medicine Grows in the Garden, Color Grows in the Garden, Climate Academy: Justice and Resilience (Fall/Winter)

Seattle Central College

Spring 2018 Seattle, WA

4.0 GPA. Received full credit (7 credits) transferred towards Bachelor's at TESC. Relevant coursework: Environmental Problems and Solutions
