To Whom It May Concern:

Allison Bumbera has been one of my advisees in the Environmental Sciences program at NAU for over a year. She is consistently prepared for our meetings, passionate about her studies, and excited about the chance to continue her education in the environmental science field. When she is interested in a topic, her determination to do well and take advantage of all opportunities is unmatched. She is a quick thinker and learns best with hands-on, applied experience.

I recommend Allison to your program. Feel free to reach out with any other questions you have!

Sincerely,

Gabrielle Sequeira Lucero
