

Kato Marshall - they/them - kato.o.marshall@gmail.com
12530 26th Ave NE, Seattle, WA 98125
+1 (609)922-0603

Work Experience

Americorps Crew Member, Earthcorps, Seattle, Washington (Feb 4th 2020-Dec 10th 2020) 1335 hours total

- Worked with a team to restore native habitat in the PNW.
- Operated small motor machinery and herbicide backpacks.
- Took on crew leadership responsibilities as Crew Leader of the Week and learned leadership and organizational skills.

Restoration Technician, Habitat Restoration Specialists LLC, SeaTac, Washington (March 15th 2021-July 13th 2022) 38 hr/week

- Restored native habitat in the PNW independently and as part of a crew.
- Interfaced with project partners and King County HeLP projects.
- Operated small motor machinery and herbicide backpacks.
- Took on crew leadership responsibilities when needed

Core Naturalist, Environmental Science Center, Burien, Washington (August 30th 2022-present) 20 hrs/week

- Delivered NGSS-aligned curricula on the life cycles of Salmon in the Pacific to youths in Grades 4th-8th
- Delivered curricula in a fun and engaging way for K-3rd grades on intertidal marine life
- Engaged with the wider community while assisting public events in Renton such as drop-in science hour at the library, and the Renton Sustainability Fair
- Managed an activity station for Stormfest, a three-day education festival engaging over 1000 middle schoolers about stormwater run-off and its impact on the Puget Sound

Front Desk Attendant, Beneath the Streets Underground Tours, Seattle, Washington (August 3rd 2022-present) ~16 hrs/week

- Maintained the cleanliness of the shared work space, maintained good relationships with customers, and managed our hotel commission log with Google Sheets

Civic Engagement

Command Center Personnel, Princeton Outdoor Action, New Jersey (Aug 2017, 2018, 2019)

- Coordinated in-field support teams via phone to facilitate and support over 60 first-year orientation outdoor backpacking, canoeing, biking, and rock-climbing trips
- Consulted on logistical plans for medical treatment and evacuations in the field using Wilderness First Responder training
- Juggled complex logistics while maintaining a pleasant, positive, and calming presence for the caller in the field

Volunteer, Beacon Food Forest, Seattle (June 2021-present, intermittent)

- assisting with permaculture guild projects and weeding

Volunteer, Brown Egg Farms, Seattle (Feb 2021-June 2021)

- assisting with plantings and waterings

Volunteer, Master Composter/Sustainability Steward, Tilth Alliance, 2023

- in process of completing volunteer hours, approx 20 hours until completion
- community engagement and coursework on Seattle's composting and recycling infrastructure and soil health

Education

Ecology and Evolutionary Biology (AB), Princeton University

2015-2019

Trainings and Certificates

Woke 101: anti-racism training and community gathering around the intersections of LGBTQ+ identities and race, Spring 2016

Student Activists Retreat and Training: a reflection time to unpack social justice issues among student activists, Fall 2016

DEI training: training DEI principles for white LGBTQIA+ people lead by Sheltreese McCoy, February 2018

Environmental Education and Community Engagement: 20-hour online professional development course through Cornell University
May 16 - June 12, 2022

Microaggression Awareness Training through the Environmental Science Center

Additional Skills

proficiency with Microsoft office suite; proficiency with Google suite; use of hand tools; design thinking; basic proficiency with ArcGIS and 123 Survey; basic proficiency in R; WA driver's license and accident-free driver

