PREREQUISITE INFORMATION

To meet the "Statistics" prerequisite for the MES program, I plan to take an introductory statistics course before my program begins. I am currently researching online courses and local community colleges options to find a course that aligns with the program's requirements and will strengthen my ability to apply statistical methods in environmental research and policy. I am committed to ensuring I have a solid foundation in this area to support my academic and professional goals in the MES program.