I am extremely pleased to have the opportunity to recommend Kevin Miller to you for Evergreen Master of Environmental Studies program. Kevin is currently completing a student in my program “Geology in the Pacific Northwest”. Though I have only known Kevin for a short while, Kevin has been consistently engaged throughout the program, and he brings enthusiasm and thoughtfulness to our program in every meeting and field trip. Kevin is often the first to engage directly with guest speakers - talking with them after their presentations when he has questions or is inspired. Kevin is also the first to do proactive things for the class – sharing resources and files with the whole program. He has been an engaged and active catalyst for better learning experiences in the program. I have no hesitations in recommending this candidate. Good luck in your search and please contact me directly with any questions!

Please contact me directly with any further questions,

Dylan Fischer
