

Lily Storbeck - (360) 742-4027 - Olympia, WA - Storbeck.Lily@gmail.com

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science - Western Washington University, Bellingham
With WWU Honors and Certificate in Geographic Information Science

RELATED EXPERIENCE

Research Intern, Walters Ag Research June – September 2024

Conducted field-level monitoring and sample collection of research trials on blueberry and raspberry crops across northwestern Washington. Tasks included trial preparation, maintenance, and assessment, as well as pesticide preparation.

GIS Certificate Recipient, Western Washington University March 2022 – June 2024

Excelled at geospatial analysis, cartography, and problem-solving while becoming proficient in ArcGIS Pro. Experienced with data collection and management, survey design, application development, and professional communication for both general and industry audiences. Served as a lab assistant (2023) and provided technical support for introductory GIS students.

Project Leader, WWU Sustainability Pathways Fellowship June - August 2023

Completed an urban tree database and management plan for the city of Okanogan. Collected and analyzed high-quality GIS field data, managed the accompanying geodatabase, and wrote a consultation report based on archival research and community interviews.

SKILLS

- Proficient with ArcGIS Pro and other ESRI products, Microsoft Office, Excel, and R.
- Experienced in group collaboration, independent work, and field sampling.
- Coursework includes environmental science, biology, chemistry, water quality, geology.

OTHER EXPERIENCE

Barista, The Bread Peddler October 2024- Present

Creates a consistent and pleasant atmosphere in this customer-facing position. Regularly pays attention to detail and multi-tasks in a high-paced environment.

Resident Advisor, Western Washington University September 2023 – June 2024

Fostered an inclusive residential community by organizing events and leading one-on-one meetings. Trained in conflict resolution and problem-solving. Relied on to work independently, attend weekly check-ins, and follow departmental standards and curriculum.

President, Bellingham Rotaract June 2021 – June 2024

Regularly organized community service projects, fundraising events, and weekly club meetings. Strengthened communication and interpersonal skills. Led the club recruitment and event marketing committee and successfully increased the club from four to fifteen active members.