Volunteer | 2022

While volunteering and observing at Bellevue High School, I worked as a teacher's aide. I helped evaluate worksheets completed by students, make copies, and helped plan lessons and units. Additionally, I aided teachers in setting up their rooms and activities.

Marketing Intern | 2022 – Present

As a Marketing Intern for The Little Market, I brainstorm campaigns and make meaningful contributions to social media strategy. Using these concepts, I execute timely and intentional copy for social media, email campaigns, blog posts, product descriptions, and more.

Shift Supervisor | 2022 – Present

Being a shift supervisor at Brewery City Pizza, it is my responsibility to manage employees, and their schedules, as well as regulate quality assurance. Overall, I help ensure that things are running smoothly in both the front and back of the house.

Shift Supervisor | 2018 – 2022

During my time as a shift supervisor at Panera Bread, I managed over 50 employees, most of whom were minors. I oversaw training, ensured breaks were taken at appropriate times, resolved conflicts, and enforced company policy.

Writing Tutor | 2018–2020

In The Evergreen State College Writing Center, I worked one-on-one with students to improve their writing abilities and grammar skills. Additionally, I conducted writing workshops for classes at Evergreen, promoted the Writing Center through marketing, and wrote for the publication Inkwell.
