Re: Master's in Teaching Candidate, Duncan Malone

To Whom it May Concern:

Duncan Malone has volunteered with us at the South Sound Reading Foundation. Today he volunteered one hour, processing books.

Volunteers are very important to our work. The clean, sort, and sticker the over 1,500 books we share with our community, each week.

We are very grateful for Duncan and for all of our volunteers. They help us engage more of our region's children in the joy and promise of books and reading.
