2nd Grade Teacher
Washburn School, Auburn, ME
Evergreen MiT alum

I am writing to provide a wholehearted recommendation for Molly Porter to the Masters in Teaching program at Evergreen. I believe she would be an excellent addition to the program, and most importantly, an amazing educator.

I have known Molly Porter for many years, and as a graduate of Evergreen's MiT program myself, I am certain that Molly would be a valuable member. I know Molly's deep commitment to equity, education, and social justice. I also know how foundational these values are to the Evergreen Masters in Teaching program. Molly and I have previously discussed the program, and upon learning about her desire to transition to teaching, I knew right away that she would be a perfect addition to the program. Molly is highly attuned to equity and justice issues, and I have seen her begin to approach her own potential education career through a similar lens. She views education as an act of social justice, liberation, and community building, and I think that Evergreen would be an excellent fit for her to continue her educational path.

In her life, Molly is aware of how her identity impacts her work and her position in society. She understands how systems of power and oppression operate in our world, and I am certain that she would bring this knowledge to Evergreen. I think that Molly would be very intentional about creating a classroom that respects and connects all students and engages them in culturally responsive teaching. I know that she believes deeply in this kind of education, and would get the opportunity to connect these beliefs with educational pedagogy and practice.

Molly brings with her years of experience in other realms, and knowing her, I think she would apply these experiences to her life in education in a very positive way. She has learned how to communicate effectively, collaborate with others, and problem solve creatively. These are all skills that are necessary to be a successful educator, and I certainly believe Molly is up to the task.

In addition to being very justice-minded and highly competent in other areas of work, Molly is very hard working and always eager to learn. She is intellectually curious and reflective, which I think are aspects of her personality that will lend themselves well to her career as a teacher. Molly is used to demanding and fast-paced environments, much like the classroom or the MiT program. I think that Evergreen would be lucky to have Molly Porter as a student in the MiT program.
