Dear Graduate Admissions,

I am writing to recommend Samantha Weden. She worked with us at Basics NW as a Behavior Technician and reported to me in my position as Clinical Supervisor.

As an employee, Samantha was always dependable and a quick learner, she always seemed motivated to implement treatment programs correctly and asked appropriate questions to aid in doing so. During her time working with me, she made impactful and positive behavior change with her clients which in turn supported the improvement of their quality of life.

I've always held dependability and ability to take constructive criticism in high regard among the behavior technicians I work with, and Samantha had both of these traits. For example, she was almost always on time to her client's appointments and was rarely absent. She made sure to read the instructional notes and asked questions if there was any discrepancies or vagueness, so programs were rarely run incorrectly.

Samantha Weden is a delight to work with and I wouldn't hesitate to work with her again.

Should you have any further questions about her, feel free to reach me at (626) 484-4700.

Thanks,

Megan Ashmore, M.S., BCBA, LBA
