To whom it may concern,

Iain Dick has been a invaluable asset to our classroom and school community and I highly recommend him the Masters in Teaching at Evergreen State College. I am a 2nd/3rd grade teacher at Lincoln Options Elementary School in Olympia and this is my 9th year teaching. Starting during the Pandemic, Iain graciously, courageously, and successfully filled in as a needed substitute. He was tuned into to the success of our students' education, the strong belief in the importance of making relationships with students, and creating equity in the classroom.

Iain has supported my classroom with volunteer work, working side by side with me, and also being a tremendous substitute when needed. I receive fully detailed sub notes about not only what activities transpired and the success of students, but also important information about students who need addition support or care. On example was when during a PE game, students argued and used inappropriate language as well as racial slurs. Iain took this very serviously, reporting to myself and the principal, while also attempting a restorative conversation with both children.

Iain is reliable, flexible and hardworking. When he says he will do something or be somewhere at a certain time, he uses 100 % follow through. Iain keeps accurate records, notes, and observations when working with all students. His humor, calm presence, and loving demeanor makes all students feel safe and loved in the classroom.

I would like to highly recommend Iain for acceptance into the Masters in Teaching Program. He is already a fabulous teacher and will continue to grow during his education. Please contact me for any further questions about Iain and his work in the classroom at 360-596-6400 or abarranger@osd.wednet.edu.

Sincerely,

Andrea Barranger
