To whom it may concern:

I am writing to recommend Kyle Bradshaw to you for the graduate program in teaching. I serve as Pastor & Head of Staff at Trinity Presbyterian Church in Tacoma, and have worked closely with Kyle on our staff team at Trinity for the last 6 years. I also officiated at Kyle & Alicia's wedding a few years ago, and have been a pastoral/mentoring role with Kyle along the way. My wife and I also have two kids in the Middle School youth ministry that he led, so we know him in that capacity as well.

Kyle is an effective, relational leader, and good at collaborating with others. He follows through. He's thoughtful, engaged, and an eager learner. Kyle is easy-going, authentic, and really relatable. He has a very open posture towards everyone he meets, and people feel comfortable and welcomed by him. I think that's especially true with middle and high schoolers.

Kyle is punctual, professional, thoughtful, and carries himself in a way that inspires confidence. He has healthy boundaries, and an appreciation for the dynamics of power and making room for the vulnerable in our midst. He is good at leading activities and conversation with youth - and makes them feel at home, and that they belong.

In my observation, I believe Kyle will be a very capable and effective teacher in a classroom setting. I also believe he has the academic skills for a graduate program. I recommend him to you without any reservation.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,
