

Aniya Cook

OBJECTIVE

Current undergraduate senior in language studies with a focus on teaching. I have the ambition to get my master's in teaching to become an English K-12 teacher. I plan to create a safe and open learning environment, and I aim to foster a love of learning among those that I will teach.

REFERENCES

Mgood@ymcapkc.org

ADDRESS

13505 55th Ave NW,
Gig Harbor, WA 98332

PHONE

(253) 260-0018

EMAIL

AniyaLcook@gmail.com

EDUCATION

2017-2018: Graham Kapowsin High school, Graham, WA, 98338

2018-2021: Peninsula High School, Gig Harbor, WA, 98332

- AP Seminar, AP Research, Elementary Tutor

2020-2021: Running Start Tacoma Community College, Tacoma, WA, 98466

- English Composition 1 & 2

2021-2025: The Evergreen State College, Olympia, WA, 98505

EXPERIENCE

2020: School Tutor, Purdy Elementary, Gig Harbor, WA, 98332

2023: Camp Counselor, YMCA-Camp Helena, Port Orchard, WA, 98367

2024: Student Employee Registration and Records, The Evergreen State College, Olympia WA

Key Skills: Communication, collaborative teamwork, team building, conflict resolution, organization, planning, adaptability, time-management, problem solving.

Key Responsibilities: Managed groups of 10-20 elementary students, tutored students in various subjects, was accountable for the student's safety, provided support to other team members, and planning and directing various activities.

COMMUNICATION

Communicating and troubleshooting problems with coworkers to ensure productive and organized activities is an important aspect of working collaboratively and of working as a teacher

LEADERSHIP

In leadership roles I have spent time organizing and planning activities for children along with ensuring they keep to their schedules. Along with those responsibilities, I helped cultivate their problem-solving abilities and spent time teaching them conflict resolution skills.