To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of Jacob Hom to recommend him for the Master's in Teaching program at The Evergreen State College. Jacob was employed at Sea Mar Community Health Centers, Renacer Youth Residential program for about 9 months. His primary responsibility was managing a milieu of up to 16 at-risk teens.

One of the strengths Jacob has is being receptive to feedback from clients and supervisors. He learned to effectively adjust his approach to youth depending on how the youth respond. He was open to supervision and learning new skills to work with clients that challenge him as a professional. He sought out assistance in managing vicarious trauma. Jacob greatly enjoyed working with the youth and facilitating group activities.

Jacob was also responsible for documentation regarding facility and client documentation. His attention to detail, writing mechanics and vocabulary made his documentation clear and effective. It was always evident that Jacob wanted to do his very best in all his assigned tasks.

All the above skills will lead Jacob toward being an asset to the MIT program. As an Evergreen alumna myself, I believe that the learning environment at Evergreen will suit Jacob's learning and personality style.

Sincerely,

Kristen Prentice, MSW, SUDP
