To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to recommend Kabenzie Kalinski without reservation for admission to Evergreen's Master in Teaching program. I have known Kabenzie her entire life, watching her grow both personally and professionally, and have been consistently impressed by her dedication, compassion, and ability to connect with children.

Kabenzie's kind-hearted and creative spirit has developed into a marvelous gift to bond with children. She provides a safe and playful atmosphere for children in her care, in which they naturally gravitate toward her. I have had the pleasure of observing her exceptional skills in caring for children and ensuring their safety and well-being. She is the only person outside of my own immediate family I have trusted to care for my own children.

Kabenzie's commitment to children is evident in her work at the Boys & Girls Club. Her ability to engage children of all ages and backgrounds is truly remarkable, fostering an inclusive and uplifting environment. Kabenzie's passion to work with children continues to grow and I am certain that pursuing her Master in Teaching is the perfect path forward.

I wholeheartedly recommend Kabenzie for admission and believe that she will excel in this challenging yet rewarding field. The next generation of students need the positive advocacy for change that she will provide.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,
