Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern,

I am honored to write this letter of recommendation for Jeni Keister, an outstanding individual whose passion for education and deep care for students make them an ideal candidate for any teacher preparation program. I have had the privilege of working with and supervising Jeni in her position as an education support professional for several years in both a comprehensive high school and the educational setting at an adolescent mental health therapeutic inpatient facility and I can say without reservation that they embody the qualities we most need in today's educators.

What sets Jeni apart is their unwavering commitment to students' growth—not only academically, but socially and emotionally as well. Whether providing student with extracurricular art programs, supporting struggling learners, or simply taking the time to listen to a student who needs support, Jeni consistently demonstrates empathy, patience, and an innate ability to connect. These qualities are not taught—they are lived, and Jeni lives them every day.

In addition to their deep care for students, Jeni brings a remarkable sense of purpose and enthusiasm to education. They are naturally curious, always seeking out new strategies to support diverse learners, and they're the kind of team member who lifts others up.

I have every confidence that Jeni will not only succeed in a teaching program but will go on to make a lasting impact in the lives of countless students. Their heart, work ethic, and sense of responsibility to their community are truly exceptional.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or would like further information.

Sincerely,

Nancy Harris-Clement
