Dear Ms. Pedersen,

I am writing to recommend Lily Raznick for the Master's in Teaching program at The Evergreen State College. I know Lily personally as both a friend and as a trusted assistant and caregiver for my children over the past few years. Their dedication, adaptability, and professionalism in childcare have left a lasting impression on my family.

Lily has demonstrated exceptional adaptability, especially when supporting my family through several transitions, including merging households. Lily's ability to work collaboratively with both parents and children to establish routines created a harmonious environment. Lily's approach to problem-solving is both creative and practical, whether managing the children's schedules, planning meals, or providing care.

Lily's strong relationship-building skills have been evident in the way they engage with my children. They consistently create activities that are both engaging and developmentally appropriate, showing great care for my children's emotional and academic development. From supporting school pickups to maintaining consistent routines, Lily has shown a clear passion and aptitude for working with children, laying a solid foundation for their future career in teaching.

Moreover, Lily's professionalism and reliability have been a consistent comfort to me. Whether it's scheduling appointments, caring for our pets, or providing dependable childcare, Lily always approaches these responsibilities with attention to detail and a strong work ethic. Their positive presence in my children's lives has been invaluable, and I believe they will thrive in a graduate program focused on teaching.

Lily's experience, commitment, and passion for education make them an ideal candidate for the Master's in Teaching program. I fully support their application and am confident they will bring the same level of care and dedication to your program that they have shown in my family's life.

Thank you for considering my recommendation.

Sincerely,

Chris Clearfield
