

2014 MPA Winter Elective Survey Results

Local Government– Stephen Buxbaum

- Overall good to excellent, but too short and needs to have credits extended to 4

Non– Profit Governance– Steve Laubacher

- Slightly below the normal rating of “Good”

Leadership and Management in Cultural Organizations– Kris Tucker

- Overall good, needs clearer expectations on syllabus and a longer lunch break

Managing Organizations– Amy Gould

- Excellent rankings

Graduate Writing– Emily Lardner

- Overall good, more core association writing assignments

Lean in Government– Larisa Benson

- Excellent rankings

Health Policy– Jan Ward Olmstead

- Luke warm reviews, clearer expectations and communication with students needed

Non– Elective or Required for Concentration

Tribal Policy– Linda Moon Stumpff and John McCoy

- Overall good to excellent, faculty needs to reign in disruptive students

Advanced Research Methods– Steve Marshall

- Overall good, faculty needs to be more prepared in the same version of SCPCC that the students are using

1st Year Core– Amy Gould, Steve Laubaucher and Greg Weeks

- Slightly lower marks for excellence than in the past (average for program details at 3.7), still raked overall as good (4.2) . Comments yield some concerns about faculty engagement with Steve and some comments on low morale due to theory overload.