

Reservation Based Community Determined Program

Liberation Through Education

This unique program works closely with local Tribes and Evergreen, Grays Harbor, and Peninsula Colleges to offer on- site college level courses that prepare students to further their education with a BA or obtain an AA. The program offers a great gateway into higher education.

- Affordable for Tribal community members, employees or community members with strong ties to Tribal communities
- Convenient schedule with classes meeting at local Tribe sites as well as on campuses
- High quality education with indigenous knowledge, personal authority and close community, faculty and mentorship support
