

Potlatch Fund

To inspire the Native tradition of giving and to expand philanthropy in Northwest Indian Country

Board Recruitment Announcement

Potlatch Fund Board seeks new member

Potlatch Fund is seeking one new member to join its Board. The one new member will be appointed by the existing ten-member Board to serve for a commitment of 1-3 years (terms expire at the Annual Meeting to be held in September each year).

Potlatch Fund is a Native led organization that seeks to inspire and build upon the Native tradition of giving and to expand philanthropy within Tribal Nations and Native communities of the Northwest. The Fund operates in the four state region of Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana.

Potlatch Fund has been operating since 2002 and has achieved considerable success and growth since that time. It now has a staff of five, and an annual budget of approximately $1,000,000. It operates from leased office space in the downtown area of Seattle.

Ideally the new Board Member to be appointed by Potlatch Fund will have the following skills and attributes:

- Have extensive knowledge of the non-profit sector, the funding sectors (including the philanthropic and/or the gaming sectors), community development and Indian Country.
- Have professional experience in one or more of the above areas.
- Be an enrolled member of an American Indian/Alaskan Native Tribe.
- Have leadership and/or extensive professional experience with a Northwest Native Tribe.
- Reside within the four state region. It is noted that the Board currently has no representation from Idaho or Montana and would welcome nominees from these states.
- Have an understanding of the issues that arise when dealing with diverse communities which can include diversity due to ethnicity, sexual orientation, age, economic means and other matters.
- The ability to generate support in Indian country in support of Potlatch Fund's mission and its activities.

This is a volunteer position, however reasonable out of pocket expenses can be met. The Potlatch Fund Board meets quarterly, with members often joining by telephone conference. Other meetings may be required from time to time as needs dictate.

This is an opportunity for appropriate individuals to help the Potlatch Fund achieve that next layer of success. Nominations can be sent on a confidential basis to Dana Arviso, Executive Director, Potlatch Fund, 801 Second Avenue, Suite 304, Seattle, WA 98104. Ms. Arviso can also be contacted directly on 206.624.6076 x 14 if you wish to discuss the role.

Nominations need to be received no later than the close of business, Tuesday, December 5, 2011.
