By Exhibiting at the 30th Annual "Protecting Our Children" Conference You Can . . .

- Be a part of the largest national conference focusing on American Indian children's issues.
- Reach conference participants who are eager to hear about and purchase resources such as books, DVDs, CDs, toys, and parenting curricula, as well as personal items such as jewelry and clothing.
- Create a greater awareness of your agency's services and products to a broad range of people across the country who are dedicated to improving the lives of our children and families.
- Benefit from exposure and traffic that will be maximized with the following activities:
 - Exhibit location at the center of the conference
 - Refreshments served within exhibit area during breaks
 - NICWA's silent auction
 - Exhibitor directory published in the conference agenda book

The exhibit booth package includes:

- 8 x 10-foot booth space
- One six-foot draped table, two chairs, and a waste-basket
- 8 .5 x 11-inch one-line identification sign
- One discounted conference registration fee at $300

General Exhibitor Information

- Booth locations will be assigned in the order in which signed contracts with payments are received.
- Applications with payments in full are due by February 10, 2012, in order for your contact information to be printed in the conference agenda book. Applications received after this date will be accepted on a space availability basis and may not be included in the conference agenda book.
- Cancellations requested in writing prior to March 29, 2012, will receive a refund less a $75 administrative fee. Refunds will not be issued for cancellations received later than March 29, 2012.
- The contracted agency representative may not lease any portion of the exhibit space to another party.
- Exhibitors are encouraged to stay at their booths and not dismantle until the conference concludes on Wednesday, April 25, 2012.
- Exhibitors will be responsible for purchasing additional items from the hotel, e.g., electrical hookup, internet connection, and any other audiovisual needs.
- The exhibition hall area is in an open area and not under lock and key. Please take appropriate precautions concerning valuables and equipment.
