Our Mission

The Governor's Office of Indian Affairs, recognizing the importance of sovereignty, affirms the government-to-government relationship and principles identified in the Centennial Accord to promote and enhance tribal self-sufficiency and serves to assist the state in developing policies consistent with those principles.

History of the Governor's Office of Indian Affairs

In 1969, the office was established to function as an Advisory Council to the Governor. After ten years, the Council was abolished and replaced by a gubernatorially appointed Assistant for Indian Affairs. Renamed the Governor's Office of Indian Affairs, it has continued to serve as liaison between state and tribal governments in an advisory, resource, consultation, and educational capacity.

The Governor's Office of Indian Affairs is pleased to provide you with this edition of the Washington State Tribal Directory. The Directory is updated approximately every 6-8 months.

Every attempt was made to ensure the accuracy of the names and numbers included. We would like to thank those who assisted us with updating the information. We regret any errors which may have occurred.

If you have questions, or would like to correct or update any of the information please contact us.
